

GSAS NEWS

GSAS Connect

Whether you are looking to hire a GSAS student or recent graduate, or seeking resources for your own job search or career transition, GSAS Compass, our new graduate career and professional development office, is here to support you. Get started by creating a profile on GSAS Connect—a career management platform exclusively for GSAS students and alumni.

Click here to create your employer profile. Joining GSAS Connect as an alumni employer enables you to:

- Receive updates and invitations to networking events and career expos with GSAS Compass
- Post a job, internship, or fellowship if your organization is interested in recruiting GSAS students or alumni from our 77 master's and doctoral programs
- Register to host an employer information session or participate in a career fair to showcase your organization to our pool of talented graduate students

Click here to join as an alumni job seeker and access the following resources:

- Exclusive resource library and job and internship database
- Live and pre-recorded career development workshops
- Employer information sessions and career fairs, conducted virtually and in person

Save the Date! GSAS Virtual Career Expo

If your company is interested in networking with or hiring GSAS graduate students and recent graduates, save the date for our upcoming Virtual Career Expo on Friday, October 8 from 9:00 am to 5:00 pm EDT. Companies and organizations hiring for full-time or internship opportunities, as well as those just looking to network, are welcome. There is no cost to participate. If you or another representative from your company is interested in learning more, please contact GSAS Compass at gsas-compass@columbia.edu.

GSAS around the World

Do you have a bar, café, hotel, or restaurant? A farm or vineyard? Please help us build a database of alumni-owned and -operated establishments to share with the entire GSAS community.

GSAS Conversations

Although GSAS Conversations, our series of special talks with alumni, is on hiatus for the summer, recordings of previous episodes are available on the GSAS YouTube channel. The final episode of the year, "American Women in Medicine: How It Started...How It's Going," can be viewed by registering here.

OPPORTUNITIES FOR COLUMBIA ALUMNI

New Columbia Art Industry Professionals Alumni Group

The Columbia Alumni Association has added a new group to its robust list of shared interest groups. Chaired by Viktoria Prigarina ('07MA, Mathematics of Finance), the group's mission is to create a network for professionals who focus on the business-related aspects of the art world in organizations such as auction houses, art galleries, museums, art fairs, art technology companies, and other visual arts-related businesses. Please fill out this form to join this engaging and vibrant community for networking, social, and educational events across the globe.

Columbia University Hacking for Humanity

Hacking for Humanity seeks to build an interdisciplinary community of participants who have domain expertise, experience, and skills such as AI, data science, policy, community perspectives, startup experience, and venture investing. Sign up now to join a team working on an early stage social venture aimed at tackling a problem affecting people or the planet. A Hackathon will occur in a HyFlex format from Friday, September 10 at 3:00 pm EDT to Sunday, September 12 at 5:00 pm EDT.

CONNECT WITH COLUMBIA

Connect with GSAS on LinkedIn and update your contact information with the University.

ALUMNI NEWS

- The novel The Commune by Erica Abeel ('69PhD French and Romance Philology) has been published by Adelaide Books.
- James M. Banner, Jr. ('68PhD, History) is the author of The Ever-Changing Past: Why All History Is Revisionist History.
- Leonard Cole ('70PhD, Political Science) wrote Chasing the Ghost: Nobelist Fred Reines and the Neutrino, in which he details the association of Reines with other neutrino researchers, including several at Columbia.
- Thomas Crowell ('48PhD, Chemistry) celebrated his 100th birthday.
- Judy Cooper ('61MA, English and Comparative Literature), a photographer living and working in New Orleans, has published Dancing in the Streets: Social Aid and Pleasure Clubs of New Orleans, which explores the history of second line music, dance, and decorations.
- Mona El-Ghobashy ('00PhD, Political Science) published Bread and Freedom: Egypt's Revolutionary Situation.
- Sergia (Nasby) Hay ('03PhD, Philosophy) wrote Ethical Silence: Kierkegaard on Communication, Education, and Humility.
- Brooke Barrera Sheldon ('20MA, Global Thought) won a Fulbright Research Award English Teaching Assistantship in Portugal for the 2021–2022 academic year.
- Amy Schoenfeld Walker ('06MA, Journalism and Earth Environmental Science) is one of sixteen Columbians mentioned in the credits for the 2021 Pulitzer Prize for Public Service, awarded to The New York Times for Database: Coronavirus in the U.S.: Latest Map and Case Count (March 27, 2020).
- Laura Wexler ('86PhD, English and Comparative Literature) was appointed the Charles H. Farnam Professor of Women's, Gender, and Sexuality Studies and of American Studies at Yale University.
- A third book of poems by Richard Widerkehr ('69MA, English and Comparative Literature), At the Grace Cafe, was published by Main Street Rag.

Do you have news to share? Write to us at gsasalumni@columbia.edu.

GSAS ALUMNI ASSOCIATION BOARD

You can assist the GSAS Alumni Association Board of Directors in advancing the vision of GSAS Dean Carlos J. Alonso in a number of ways, including joining one of four alumni committees: Awards, Professional Development, Recent Alumni and Students, and Stewardship and Engagement. Write to gsas-alumni@columbia.edu for more information.

SUPPORT GSAS
STUDENTS STAY
CONNECTED

This email was sent by: Graduate School of Arts and Sciences - Columbia University
535 West 116th Street - 109 Low Memorial Library New York, NY, 10027, US

Update Profile

Graduate School of Arts and Sciences <gsas-alumni@columbia.edu>
To: ym3122@columbia.edu

Wed, Jul 9, 2025 at 10:54 AM

Summer 2021

GSAS NEWS

GSAS Connect

Whether you are looking to hire a GSAS student or recent graduate, or seeking resources for your own job search or career transition, GSAS Compass, our new graduate career and professional development office, is here to support you. Get started by creating a profile on GSAS Connect—a career management platform exclusively for GSAS students and alumni.

Click here to create your employer profile. Joining GSAS Connect as an alumni employer enables you to:

- Receive updates and invitations to networking events and career expos with GSAS Compass
- Post a job, internship, or fellowship if your organization is interested in recruiting GSAS students or alumni from our 77 master's and doctoral programs
- Register to host an employer information session or participate in a career fair to showcase your organization to our pool of talented graduate students

Click here to join as an alumni job seeker and access the following resources:

- Exclusive resource library and job and internship database
- Live and pre-recorded career development workshops
- Employer information sessions and career fairs, conducted virtually and in person

Save the Date! GSAS Virtual Career Expo

If your company is interested in networking with or hiring GSAS graduate students and recent graduates, save the date for our upcoming Virtual Career Expo on Friday, October 8 from 9:00 am to 5:00 pm EDT. Companies and organizations hiring for full-time or internship opportunities, as well as those just looking to network, are welcome. There is no cost to participate. If you or another representative from your company is interested in learning more, please contact GSAS Compass at gsas-compass@columbia.edu.

GSAS around the World

Do you have a bar, café, hotel, or restaurant? A farm or vineyard? Please help us build a database of alumni-owned and -operated establishments to share with the entire GSAS community.

GSAS Conversations

Although GSAS Conversations, our series of special talks with alumni, is on hiatus for the summer, recordings of previous episodes are available on the GSAS YouTube channel. The final episode of the year, "American Women in Medicine: How It Started...How It's Going," can be viewed by registering here.

New Columbia Art Industry Professionals Alumni Group

The Columbia Alumni Association has added a new group to its robust list of shared interest groups. Chaired by Viktorija Prigarina ('07MA, Mathematics of Finance), the group's mission is to create a network for professionals who focus on the business-related aspects of the art world in organizations such as auction houses, art galleries, museums, art fairs, art technology companies, and other visual arts-related businesses. Please fill out this form to join this engaging and vibrant community for networking, social, and educational events across the globe.

Columbia University Hacking for Humanity

Hacking for Humanity seeks to build an interdisciplinary community of participants who have domain expertise, experience, and skills such as AI, data science, policy, community perspectives, startup experience, and venture investing. Sign up now to join a team working on an early stage social venture aimed at tackling a problem affecting people or the planet. A Hackathon will occur in a HyFlex format from Friday, September 10 at 3:00 pm EDT to Sunday, September 12 at 5:00 pm EDT.

CONNECT WITH COLUMBIA

Connect with GSAS on LinkedIn and update your contact information with the University.

ALUMNI NEWS

- The novel The Commune by Erica Abeel ('69PhD French and Romance Philology) has been published by Adelaide Books.
- James M. Banner, Jr. ('68PhD, History) is the author of The Ever-Changing Past: Why All History Is Revisionist History.
- Leonard Cole ('70PhD, Political Science) wrote Chasing the Ghost: Nobelist Fred Reines and the Neutrino, in which he details the association of Reines with other neutrino researchers, including several at Columbia.
- Thomas Crowell ('48PhD, Chemistry) celebrated his 100th birthday.
- Judy Cooper ('61MA, English and Comparative Literature), a photographer living and working in New Orleans, has published Dancing in the Streets: Social Aid and Pleasure Clubs of New Orleans, which explores the history of second line music, dance, and decorations.
- Mona El-Ghobashy ('00PhD, Political Science) published Bread and Freedom: Egypt's Revolutionary Situation.
- Sergia (Nasby) Hay ('03PhD, Philosophy) wrote Ethical Silence: Kierkegaard on Communication, Education, and Humility.
- Brooke Barrera Sheldon ('20MA, Global Thought) won a Fulbright Research Award English Teaching Assistantship in Portugal for the 2021–2022 academic year.
- Amy Schoenfeld Walker ('06MA, Journalism and Earth Environmental Science) is one of sixteen Columbians mentioned in the credits for the 2021 Pulitzer Prize for Public Service, awarded to The New York Times for Database: Coronavirus in the U.S.: Latest Map and Case Count (March 27, 2020).

- Laura Wexler ('86PhD, English and Comparative Literature) was appointed the Charles H. Farnam Professor of Women's, Gender, and Sexuality Studies and of American Studies at Yale University.
- A third book of poems by Richard Widerkehr ('69MA, English and Comparative Literature), At the Grace Cafe, was published by Main Street Rag.

Do you have news to share? Write to us at gsasalumni@columbia.edu.

GSAS ALUMNI ASSOCIATION BOARD

You can assist the GSAS Alumni Association Board of Directors in advancing the vision of GSAS Dean Carlos J. Alonso in a number of ways, including joining one of four alumni committees: Awards, Professional Development, Recent Alumni and Students, and Stewardship and Engagement. Write to gsas-alumni@columbia.edu for more information.

SUPPORT GSAS
STUDENTS STAY
CONNECTED

This email was sent by: Graduate School of Arts and Sciences - Columbia University
535 West 116th Street - 109 Low Memorial Library New York, NY, 10027, US

Update Profile